Data protection

Visiting this website does not oblige the user to provide information of a personal nature, so that any such data is provided on a voluntary basis. When data is collected the voluntary or obligatory nature of the provision of personal data will be clearly indicated. Refusal to provide information indicated as required means the user will not be able to access the services for which said data was requested, or that this service will not be provided. Likewise, information may be provided voluntarily so that the service can be provided in the best possible way.

In the event that users of this website are asked to provide their e-mail address to access any of the services offered they may indicate that they do not wish to receive any communication from EXERCYCLE. EXERCYCLE shall provide the appropriate mechanisms for cancelling the subscription concerned for users who have subscribed to any mailing list within this website.

BHFITNESS logs IP addresses (which all visitors have at the time of accessing the website) exclusively for internal purposes such as compiling access and market segmentation statistics. EXERCYCLE does not associate IP addresses with personally identifiable information. Third parties may be provided with informative extracts concerning traffic to this website including data on the number of visits to a particular section of the site, traffic flows and trends, etc. Said information does not affect users' anonymity.

Access to this website may involve the use of cookies. Cookies are small pieces of data stored in a user's web browser so that the website server can remember certain information which will only be used by the same on future visits. Cookies generally have a limited life span. No cookie allows contact with the user's phone number, e-mail address or any other contact information. Cookies cannot extract information from the user's hard drive or steal personal information. Users who do not wish to receive cookies or who wish to be informed of their use may configure their browser accordingly.

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analysis service provided by Google Inc., a Delaware corporation having its head office at 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View (California), CA 94043, United States of America ("Google").

Google Analytics uses 'cookies' to help analyze how users use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of our website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google may transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google.

This website may use 'tracking tags' on certain pages to target marketing campaigns and measure the results. Under no circumstances do these tags store data of a personal nature.

You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser. However please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of some websites. On accessing this website you consent to the treatment of your personal information by Google in the form and for the purposes mentioned above.

Users whose personal data is subject to treatment may exercise the rights of objection, access, rectification and cancellation free of charge under the provisions of Organic Act 15/1999 on protection of data of a personal nature. These rights may be exercised using one of the following means:
